TUESDAY evening The Conference Dinner Reception will be held in the Gaelic Athletic Association Museum (GAA). Delegates booked for the Conference Dinner should arrive at the museum for a reception at 19:00 hours.

Directions - The entrance to the museum is via the Cusack Stand, Croke Park, St Joseph's Avenue, Dublin 3. Turn right out of the Hogan Stand Entrance then right again at the traffic lights at the end of Jones Road, walk along Conliffe Road turn right again into St Joseph’s Avenue – GAA is sign posted.

Croke Park is the home of the GAA. The GAA is justifiably very proud of their heritage. They say of their museum “The museum is like no other sporting museum you will ever visit. It not only celebrates the history of Ireland’s national games, it also vividly brings to life how the GAA has contributed to its country’s cultural, social and sporting heritage.”

Delegates will be escorted via the pitch to the Hogan Stand for the Conference Dinner.

The WPSA Gordon Memorial Lecture is at 16:00 hours followed by reception in the Nally Suite on level 4.
